The teacher who walks in the shadow of the temple, among his followers, gives not of his wisdom but rather of his faith and lovingness.

If he is indeed wise he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind.

FSC HISTORY IN THE MAKING: RAMS 23, BOSTON STATE 0

FRAMINGHAM—They came by the score to watch history in the making, and the thousands who streamed into Framingham's Bowditch Field yesterday afternoon to see Framingham State College's first football game certainly got an eyeful.

The freshman-laden Rams, in their initial foray into the world of collegiate club football, responded with an inspired 23-0 trouncing of Boston State's "B" team.

The Rams, coached by former Holy Cross standout Dennis Golden, he's also the Dean of Students at FSC, put on a surprising show of disciplined, grind 'em out football, quite uncharacteristic of a team playing its first game together as a unit.

"Sure, it was nice to win the first one," said a congenial Golden after the on the field celebration had abated. "But let's not get carried away with things. Everyone played a strong game for us but we can still improve."

Golden had ample opportunity to use everyone on the 44-man Ram roster, as FSC outmuscled the junior Warriors with a solid ground game and a more than adequate defense that held Boston State to minus 35 yards rushing.

"We were really an unknown quality before this game," commented Golden. "We proved this afternoon that we do have the continuity and the solidarity to win."

Typical of the hard-nosed style of play the Rams exhibited was Ed Lynch, a 5-8, 160 pounder from Worcester. Lynch lugged the ball 30 times for 90 yards (and a touchdown) and he probably had a bruise for each of his carries.

If Golden and athletic director Steve Ryder were pleasantly surprised by the size of the unexpectedly large crowd at Bowditch, so were the fans surprised when fullback Pete Flynn made grid history by bulling over from the one in the first period to give the Rams a 6-0 lead.

From that point on it became a game of "Can you top this" as the Rams came up with one key play after another.

The defense came up with a solid effort, a strong kicking game kept the Warriors in poor field position all afternoon, and the power running of a strong offensive backfield all combined to wear down Boston State.

While FSC fans were still pinching themselves to see if Flynn's TD was for real, Elder Fonseca was splitting the uprights with a towering 33 yard field goal against the wind and suddenly it was 9-0.

Steve Buckly, formerly of Archbishop Williams High, handled most of the quarterbacking duties for the Rams. Golden said after the game that Buckley was calling 80 percent of the plays, and whatever he was calling was working, as the Rams accounted for 246 total yards.

172 of those 246 yards came on the ground, and were due in no small part to a tough offensive line spearheaded by 6-4 tackle Larry Sims of Natick.

Sims was instrumental in the Ram's second touchdown, scored by Lynch late in the third period. Lynch followed a block by Sims and followed him into the end zone on a three-yard jaunt that upped the ante to 16-0.

The FSC defense was directly responsible for the final score of the game, as the Rams dropped Boston State's quarterback for the fourth time to set up a one yard quarterback sneak by Chris Whitty, who replaced Buckley.

By now the FSC fans were delirious and public address announcer Art Reardon was announcing plans for the victory party later on in the evening.

The only thing left to cap the afternoon was preserving the shutout, and Brighton's Joe Sinclair took care of that with a neat interception on the Ram goal line with just nine seconds left in the game.

REFLECTIONS

Across the morning sky, all the birds
are leaving
Ah, how can they know it's time for them to go.
Before the winter fire, we'll still
be dreaming
I do not count the time
Who knows where the time goes? Who knows
Where the time goes?
Sad, deserted shore your fickle friends
are leaving
Ah, but then you know it's time for
them to go.
But I will still be here, I have no thought
of leaving
I do not count the time
Who knows where the time goes?
And I'm not alone, while my love is near me.
And I know it will be so, til it is time to go.
So come the storms of winter and then the birds
in Spring again.
I do not fear the time.
Who knows how my love grows?
Who knows where the time goes?

—Judy Collins

We are the children of laughter and light
As friends of seventy-three
Together we care to color our world
In bright shades of life
Under one golden sun.
So much we share.

Our happy days have not forgotten us
Friendship is eternal
Together we've tried
To be united as one.

Our brilliant reflections of yesterday's memories
Will shine upon us today.
Forget all the pain; remember that as
We love and share today
This will be part of all
Our future's gains.

Our successful days have not forgotten us
Unity is eternal
Together we have Succeeded as one.

We'll not forget
We're the class of seventy-three
And tomorrow is eternal
We know our roads will part
But we'll remember in our hearts . . .

We know our roads will part
But we'll remember in our hearts.

A REMEMBRANCE: DANNY DEMEO

The work comes into the world at an undetermined hour, from a source still unknown, but it comes inevitably.

Suffering, searching, tormented souls, deeply sundered by the conflict between spirit and matter. Discovery (of) the part that is living in both animate and inanimate nature! To speak of mystery in terms of mystery.

Is this not the conscious and unconscious goal of the compelling urge to create?

Vassili Kandinsky

Peace settlement terms

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The White House made public today terms of the Vietnam cease-fire agreement which ends America's longest war at 7 p.m. EST Saturday and promises what President Nixon called "peace with honor" throughout Southeast Asia.

Summary, Page 10A

The 23-point pact to be signed in Paris Saturday provides for the liberation of all American prisoners of war and the withdrawal of the remaining 23,700 U.S. troops in Vietnam by March 28.

It sets up a four-nation force of 1,160 men to supervise the truce and calls for an international conference within 30 days — probably in Vienna —to antee the peace. The document also spells out a strict neutrality policy to be observed in Laos and Cambodia.

There was no reference to a withdrawal of North Vietnam troops in the "Agreement on Ending the War and Restoring Peace in Vietnam." It did stipulate that South Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces shall remain in place. The pact specifically includes a proviso recognizing the sovereignty of the Saigon government.

There was no immediate indication that any substantial changes were in the final accord from a tentative ceasefire draft reported in October.

The United States, under the agreement announced to the nation by Nixon Tuesday night, will remove the mines sowed in North Vietnamese harbors while Hanoi will refrain from infiltrating troops and war supplies into the south.

The United States will be permitted to provide unlimited economic aid to South Vietnam and to supply military equipment replacement for the Saigon government forces.

The first test of Hanoi's good faith will come in the release of the American prisoners of war. The Pentagon says 587 are being held in North Vietnam and elsewhere.

POWs to return at intervals

WASHINGTON (AP) — Presidential adviser Henry Kissinger said today U.S. prisoners of war will be turned over to American medical personnel in Hanoi at intervals of two weeks or 15 days after signing of a Vietnam peace agreement Saturday.

"American prisoners will be released at intervals of two weeks or 15 days in roughly equal installments," Kissinger said, with the total time frame coinciding with the 60-day withdrawal of all U.S. forces from South Vietnam.

Prisoners held in North Vietnam and Laos, he said, will be received by U.S. medical teams in Hanoi and will be flown in American planes to locations to be selected by U.S. officials.

Kissinger did not say when the first American POWs would be released.

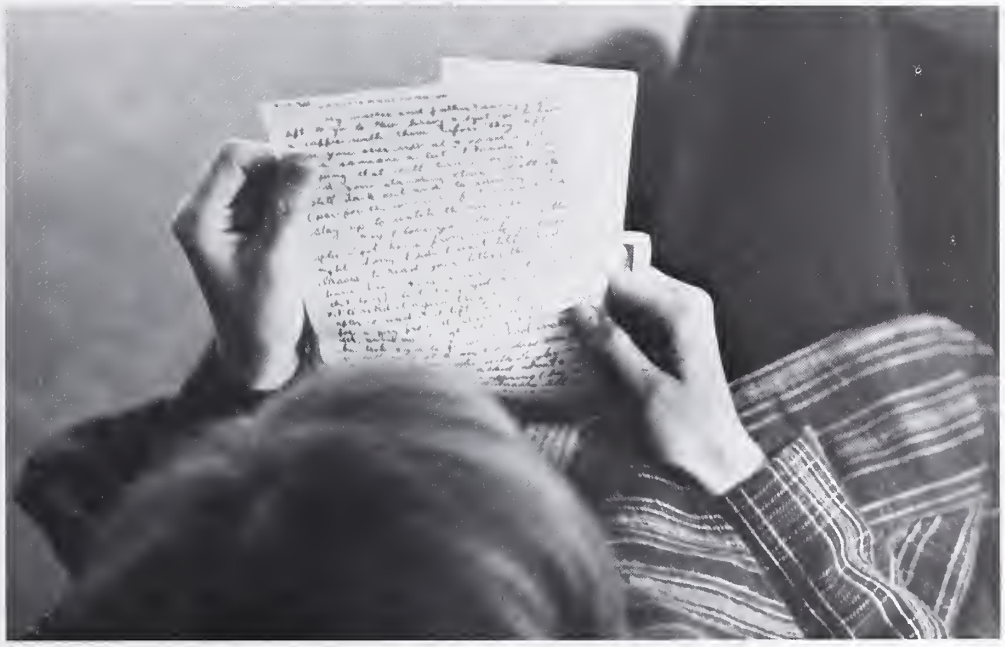
WHAT THE WORLD NEEDS NOW IS LOVE



Afoot and light-hearted,
I take to the open road,
Healthy, free, the world
before me,
The long brown path

Henceforth I ask not good-

Henceforth I whimper no
more, postpone no more,
need nothing,
Done with indoor

querulous criticisms,
Strong and content I travel

To all those connected with the Dial:

Taking on the job of Co-editors of the '73 Yearbook was a consideration in June of last year to do something for our class. We had no real background education in how to run such a publication, but met the challenge head-on.

Our first problem was getting an adequate staff to help organize and decide what was to be printed in May. A staff? With some strain we finally got the best staff any yearbook editors could have working for them. We got off to a horrible start in the Fall, but now everything has developed smoothly. THANKS.

Secondly, an advisor was chosen. No better choice again: Dean DeSaulnier, you've been great. Our thanks, too, to Margaret Lee for putting up with our rushing into the Dean of Men's office and asking favors all the time.

And lastly, our deepest appreciation to Joe Donovan and W J Keller Inc for bearing with our problems and helping whenever we needed help—which was frequently.

We hope that the student body, faculty, and administration reading and looking at the 1973 edition of Dial can find something to cherish and keep for many years, as we will cherish and keep the book and the memories of producing it.

Thanks to all and may your futures be bright and happy.

Not so fast, life,
Slow down and let me breathe awhile.
I don't want to think about the state of the world,
Or worry about going to a party and coming home high
Maybe tomorrow
Not today.

Not so fast, life,
The world can wait for me for awhile.
I don't want to see a loved-one going to war,
Or watch the news and see the people die
Maybe tomorrow
Not today
For tomorrow I must,
But today I am still a child.
